The Band of Brothers Shakespeare Company assembles to recreate Shakespeare's genius and influence to remind both player and audience of the dignity in language and life. The Company is dedicated to educational enrichment of both actor and community through production of classic theatre in the Laurel Highlands.

2010 Membership Drive

A humbling thought: In the Laurel Mountains of Pennsylvania, in a ravine, one mile into Stackhouse Park, across Elk Run, over 400 actors have given William Shakespeare life. How to celebrate? With you, of course, in a special season:

January	Lloyd's Prayer	Bottle Works
February 27	Pink Ribbon Ball	Frank Pasquerilla Ctr
April 22	Free Membership Show	Blvd. Grill
May 15	Summer Auditions	P. St Park
TBD	Our Town	Johnstown State Theatre

10th Annual Production

July 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24
Stackhouse Park Main Pavilion 7:00

Join today! The entire season starts with your financial support. We need you now. Our entire budget depends on the tax deductible donations and Band of Brother Shakespeare Company memberships.

Please fill in the membership application. We pledge our 2010 season will be magical.

Breath to Shakespeare's words

“..The Band of Brothers programs attests to the members’ passion for their art and their dedication to the Laurel Highlands region.

However, none of these endeavors can be accomplished without the proper funding.”
